

Date of Issue: 10th October 2024
Place: Porbandar Region

Porbandar, facing directly the roaring shore of Arabian Sea, located between the worlds famous "DWARKA" and "SOMNATH" one of the twelve popular mythological ancient Indian histories, the town planning of the city is so perfectly planned that today it is an attraction to the modern town planner worldwide. Amongst many other importance, Porbandar is an ascetic land of saint SUDAMA, the bosom friend of lord "KRISHNA" and birth place of Mahatma Gandhi, the father of nation who taught a lesson of non-violence to the present day world. Shraavan Sud Poonam or Nariyeli Purnima is believed to be the foundation day of this holy city. The uniqueness of Porbandar city is that it is constructed of special type of white soft stone carves artistically and that is why this is popularly known as "WHITE CITY" also.

Porbandar district has played a pivotal role in the industrial development of the Gujarat state through their fish processing units, prawns processing units, cold storage for fish, fishing net industries, mosaic tiles industries, Emery abrasive units, cement articles manufacturing units, auto servicing units situated in the district.

Due to its coastal location, salt manufacturing units have also been developed. The district is abundant with limestone and other minerals, leading to the establishment of mining-based industries such as cement plants, soda ash units, and bauxite units.
